COMMUNICATING IN AWKWARD SITUATIONS

Allison Blankenship

We've all been there—the awkward conversation that makes your palms sweat. The ones that make or break both business deals and relationships. The ones where you feel your back is up against the wall. Or the ones you've had over and over with no results.

Join Allison Blankenship, president of Life's Simple Solutions, Inc. for an enlightening lesson in how to handle truly awkward conversations and get the results you want. You'll discover:

- A four-step communications model to address awkward situations
- Three neutral words to confront negative behavior
- An impromptu technique to handle inappropriate comments and behavior

Allison has shared these same techniques with national clients such as Wal-Mart Home Office, Bank of America, U.S. Air Force and Pepper Construction. She has coauthored three books on leadership and productivity, was the recipient of the Jim Barber Leadership award for the state of Florida, and named an Outstanding Young Woman of America.

OUR MISSION

The Presidents Forum of Southwest Florida is a networking group of active and retired Presidents, CEOs, CFOs, and Managing Directors meeting to resolve common problems and to obtain the latest and best information available on a variety of subjects relative to the successful operation of today's enterprises. The goal is to enhance personal effectiveness and to fine tune management, leadership and life style strategies in order to achieve personal and professional objectives.
